

My Bio:

Halima Benzoukh is an Assistant Professor at Kasdi Merbah University- Algeria. She has lectured on British literature, stylistics and English basic skills, and supervised a number of dissertations in TEFL, literature, UK/US politics and history. Halima has published a number of articles and has participated in many national and international conferences. Her research interests include stylistics, sociology, sociolinguistics, literature, TEFL, peace-building, transforming conflicts and peace education.